

technologyid	9
Technology package	LOWLAND SWEET POTATO VARIETIES
Summary	NARI has released 79 sweet potato varieties suitable for the normal lowland conditions of PNG. These include four lowland drought tolerant varieties previously released as a drought coping strategy. The release of these cultivars will give the farmers in the Islands Region and other lowland areas a wider range of superior sweet potato varieties to choose from and will improve their food security and income generation.
Usage
Scaling the technology
Year released
Related project
Applicable regions
References	